What is really happening behind the scenes—and why is 2026 being called a turning point for humanity? In this powerful and eye-opening presentation, explosive information is revealed about global disclosure, secret space programs, geopolitical shifts, extraterrestrial contact, financial resets, and massive Earth changes already unfolding. Topics discussed include

- The rise of global super-states and collapsing systems
- Secret space programs and hidden technologies
- Extraterrestrial presence and increasing contact
- Financial transformation, digital currency, gold & silver
- Earth changes, cosmic events, and gamma-ray impacts
- Disclosure timelines and why truth is emerging now
- Why 2026 marks a point of no return

Much of what is shared will never appear in mainstream media. This discussion connects the dots between geopolitics, space, consciousness, and humanity's future.

ANNOUNCER: On December 13th, 2025, Dr. Salla hosted a webinar titled What's Coming in 2026. Wherein we take a good look at the events leading up to and into the coming year.

So much has happened already in 2026 that a review of what was shared at that webinar warrants a second look. In this episode of Exopolitics Today we focus with Stewart Swerdlow to obtain a deeper understanding of the current and unfolding events of 2026.

DR. SALLA: We are now going to introduce Stewart Swerdlow. He is a legend in the field and we're very glad to welcome Stewart. Take it away Stewart.

DR. STEW: Thank you Dr. Salla. I appreciate that. Just a clarification, it was actually my great uncle, Yaku Swerdlow, who was the first president of the Soviet Union.

And his son, Andre, actually began the KGB. And that's why I always say Mr. Putin would not have a job if not for my family. And so also my grandmother, Maias Verlova, was a Soviet spy during World War II. But I always tell people to make sure that they understand that the Soviet Union and the United States were on the same side during World War II. And my grandfather, Michael Sverdlov, was sent to Britain to start the Communist Party there. And then when he was successful with that, he was sent to the United States to do the same thing.

So that's kind of the reason I was taken into the Montauk project from 1970 to 1983. It was not only about time travel. There were many, many projects involved with Montauk project. It was about genetic manipulation, weather control, mind control and programming, esoteric weaponry. And also especially in what I was involved in was what we call language of hyperspace, which is the language of God-mind, which is using color, tone and archetype symbol in order to transmit information and understanding.

So that's a lot in a nutshell there for the Montauk project.

And it is why I had been contacted after mount-top project by governments to work with them for various purposes, even to this day. And that's what I need to explain before I begin what I'm going to tell you, is especially in regard to what is going on in the world right now and what will come not only in 2026, but beyond, because there is a huge schedule that's being in place at the moment.

I can tell you that I have been contacted by American government, Russian government, German intelligence and other governments related to that in order to work with them for purposes of helping exchange information. This became particularly important after February of 2022 when the Russian-Ukraine War began. At that time, all official channels between the two countries of United States and Russia were closed.

And so I was asked by some very high ranking person in State Department and Pentagon and even military intelligence to act as a back channel between the United States and Russia in order to exchange information and messages. And so I did that and one of the first things they asked me was to help prison exchanges and it ultimately led to in November 2023, I was asked by both the Russian government and the United States government to lead a delegation to Istanbul to lead the American delegation to meet with the Russian counterparts to exchange ideas between people so that it would lead to a peaceful resolution of the Ukrainian war and also between the United States and Russia for eventual normalization.

And so I did go to the conference. Laura Eisenhower went with me. I also brought a person that I call the space director who is one of the people who debriefs me several times per week. And the conference went very well. There were tense moments. Yes, of course,. And that meeting of November 2023 eventually led to the meeting between President Trump and President Putin in Alaska and also with the American delegations and Russian delegations in Oman and Dubai and Istanbul again.

So it was very productive, although it did take a bit of time. And ever since then I've been working back and forth exchanging information because unfortunately the official channels are still closed and so they need back channels in order to create messages back and forth.

So having said all that, there's a lot going on behind the scenes that it will never be on the news. And by the way, even the American government told me never to believe anything you see on the media because it basically lies. And I'm sure most of the people here know that by now. I'm sure that all the people on this webinar understand what governments can be like and what the media is like and how they spin things in order to control what people think. Hopefully that is beginning to change.

Whatever you may think of President Trump, I can tell you that he does have good intentions and yes, he has some personality quirks that maybe are not friendly to certain people, but he does have good intentions and I'm going to talk about that in a moment about who he really is and what he represents. I'm going to start by saying that what we are witnessing now is the precursor to the formation of three major superstates and that would be American, Russian and Chinese.

So it's already been agreed that the so-called one world government new world order is a failure. It's not going to happen anytime soon because there are too many different cultural differences, belief systems and agendas to have 8 billion people, actually there's more than 8 billion people to fall under one umbrella of a one world government.

So what's been decided is these superstates will be created.

The United States will be the head of the American superstate which will include all of North America and Central America, South America and the Caribbean, which is why President Trump has declared that Greenland will fall under the American jurisdiction and I will even say that Iceland will eventually also come under the jurisdiction of the American superstate and I was told that Ireland and the UK most likely will come under that jurisdiction as well because Russia, if you recall about two and a half years ago, President Putin said that Russia would extend all the way to Lisbon, in other words, going all the way across Europe.

Now Britain is not of a mindset to fall under an Eastern European jurisdiction and so that is why King Charles invited President Trump last September to come to London as a unique situation only the first time that American President was invited for British royalty visit. In that time, King Charles requested that the United States join the British Commonwealth because in that way the United States would then be responsible for defending all the nations underneath the Commonwealth. There's a reason also for this and that is because China as a superstate will be given all of East Asia all the way down to Indonesia and Malaysia and the South Pacific and those of you who know about such things understand that China is already on the ground in many South Pacific islands even controlling the police forces and the governments there. China wants to take Australia and New Zealand.

Now the problem is that these are English speaking countries, they're part of the Commonwealth, they have huge natural resources and so there is a desire for the Americans under the super state to perhaps include Australia and New Zealand under that jurisdiction as well. Some of you may recall a few months ago that Chinese navy surrounded Australia and that was a symbolic gesture to show that they now are going to include Australia and the Chinese superstate, but that now remains to be seen it probably will not be decided until 2026 at some point, but I believe that Australia and New Zealand will become part of the American superstate.

Now having said all that that is the reason that President Trump is infatuated with gold. You always hear him say gold visa, golden dome, putting gold in the Oval Office and people are criticizing him while the media is criticizing him of being extravagant and wasting money, but that's not the reason.

The reason is that in order for the Golden Dome which President Trump is also referring to as the golden vault it needs to have the entire geography of North America and the Caribbean in order to defend the countries there and so that is why he is saying that Canada will be a 51st state. It's not going to be a 51st state. It's too big to be a state obviously, but what will happen is that the provinces will become states within the umbrella of the American superstate.

You can think of it as the EU type of situation where each country is sovereign, but under the jurisdiction of a superstate of the EU. So that is what we'll be bringing to North and South America and the Caribbean and that's another reason why the United States is clearing out governments in the Western Hemisphere that would pose a problem to the superstate. Countries like Venezuela, like Colombia and even Mexico and that is why he has declared the drug cartels in Mexico and elsewhere as terrorist organizations which they are and quite frankly the Chinese are definitely encouraging the cartel, arming them, giving them fentanyl and helping them traffic people and at the risk of sounding in a negative way and by the way you should know I'm not politically correct and sometimes I say things that maybe are not correct in the so-called way of speaking these days, but I do tell the truth and I tell you what I know and so they will remove the government of Venezuela and Colombia and Mexico will most likely also have a change of government eventually. Everybody is in place.

It's all been staged at the moment. We will see the reinstitution and this has already been on the news of the Monroe Doctrine which you may recall those of you who know American history, the Monroe Doctrine stated 200 years ago that the American government has influence over all the territories in the Western Hemisphere and they're reinstituting that.

Now interesting about Canada because if you look at the designation let's say a phone designation when you have a country code when you're dialing outside of your country you put the plus sign in the country code and then the number. Well the United States and Canada are the only two countries in the world that have the same country code.

So why is that? And that's because it's always been behind the scenes actually under one umbrella. The electrical system, the economic system, the phone system have all been unified.

So in effect Canada and the United States have already acted as one country and it's just a matter of what the intelligence agencies call creeping meaning little by, little by, they release information to the public in a way that it could be accepted and once that settles in they give you the next step, and the next step, until finally all the information is out there and it's just common knowledge and accepted by everyone.

And here's the thing when all of these countries are unified under one umbrella there will not be any need for immigration or illegal aliens and this kind of thing and that's why President Trump is putting people back where they came from because when the unification happens under the super state there will be great development economically in all of these countries and so there will be no need for anybody to leave because they'll have what they need where they are and the borders will be more like the EU right now.

So President Trump said before he took office the second term, he said that the first year in office he would seem like a dictator and he, to some people, he does and it's because when you have a giant mess to clean up and clear out you can't be pleasant about it.

You have to clean up the dirt and clean up the garbage and all the evil things that happened and so that's what he's doing and I will tell you that we are coming to a point in 2026 where things are going to be very different.

I was told two things I was told March 2026 you will not recognize the United States. It will be a very different country. Then I was told that by November of 2026 you won't recognize the Earth. It will be completely different than it is now. There was no delineation, as far as what that meant. Did it mean geologically? Did it mean politically, economically. I would say all the above because I'm going to tell you some things which may seem a little bit scary at the moment.

These are things that the media is not going to tell you, but I will tell you and here's the thing I need you to know

I had to sign an NCNDA meaning there were some things that I cannot reveal and I was told point blank about three years ago, maybe four years ago now, that I would be chosen, used as a spokesperson for what's happening because the government will not say it because they don't want to take responsibility and because if a private person reveals this information in the way that I'm doing now, it can be done in a more acceptable manner and that's why my wife and I, those of you who know my work and our website expansions.com every week we film a news video that's released on Saturday mornings it came out this morning and you will see that I reveal the information and my wife Janet reveals the information in a way that's more let's say with humor.

So that you know a spoonful of sugar helps the medicine go down as Mary Poppins has said. So that's what we do. We release information that could be very stressful in a way that with some humor so that it's understandable. Now I'm going to tell you I have so many things to tell you Please forgive me if they may not be in a specific order, but I have quite a few pages of notes to go through and I will go through as many of them as time allows.

And so one thing that's very important for you to understand is that in 1993 NASA saw with satellites gigantic supernovas that occurred in the Atacarini star system and simultaneously in the Betelgeese star system these supernovas produced huge gamma ray bursts that are traveling or traveled through the galaxy and in the last two and a half years have finally started hitting our solar system and particularly our planet and our star, our Sun.

Now what does this mean the gamma rays have caused the magma underneath the upper mantle to increase in its voluminous capacity and it and heated it up and so this is why we are seeing huge earthquakes all over the Earth and why we are seeing volcanoes erupting, even volcanoes that have been dormant or even considered extinct.

And by the way there's no such thing as an extinct volcano if there are chambers underneath it can fill with magma and be reactivated even after millions of years. We're seeing in southeast Iran a volcano that hasn't erupted in 12,000 years starting to come to life. We are seeing in east Africa near Somalia and Ethiopia a splitting of the continent by the magma underneath causing the ground the bedrock to split. We are seeing on the Pacific rim huge earthquakes, just the other day huge earthquakes in Japan and in Alaska.

And a year or two ago we saw a huge earthquake in Chile these will continue and unfortunately even become more volatile. What you don't know is that under the Pacific Ocean there are more than one million volcanoes, 95% of them are not monitored because of their location their depth and because we just don't have enough equipment to monitor over a million volcanoes and so when they erupt we often don't know that this has happened until we see the results, a tsunami of ash flying into the into the atmosphere, what scientists are calling rogue waves and you may have seen heard this term before about rogue waves where suddenly a wave will appear it'll hit a ship it'll go hit a coastline and they call it rogue.

It's not rogue it's because a volcano has erupted somewhere in the ocean nearby it goes to my dog my Russian dogs from Siberia and it causes the ocean to rise up the push of the explosive force of the volcano pushes the ocean up and it starts to roll towards the coast and quite frankly this is what causes these sudden shark attacks and people seeing these deep sea creatures washing up on shore suddenly and it's because of they are afraid of the volcanic eruptions and they swimming closest to shore and because their food is running away from the area where they live and so the sharks and the other animals are following the food sources closer to the shore and this is the other thing when scientists are telling you that global warming is causing the oceans to heat up.

That is not what is occurring. What is occurring is that the heat of the volcanic eruptions is literally it's like putting a pot of tea on a burner and it's causing the water to get heated up that's what's causing it. I'll tell you the truth. There is no global warming that was a media and deep state false flag so that they could raise your utility taxes and other things and restrictions.

In effect the Earth is getting cooler and you should know that the normal state of the Earth is an ice age. That's the normal state of the Earth. so what we've been living in in the last 12,000 years is actually an anomaly which happens every now and then, but the normal condition of the Earth is an ice age and we're seeing that and you will see it this winter actually with the polar vortex collapsing over the northern hemisphere especially.

And that's another term what we're seeing with weather and those of you who follow it. I actually trained with national weather service many years ago and in those days we did not have a terms like polar vortex or they now use the word snownado storms exploding and these kinds of things.

Those terms didn't exist. They create such new terms and all of a sudden you'll see them in a weather forecasts and they'll just keep repeating it as if it's normal and they never explain it. That's called creeping as I mentioned earlier. They put something in little by little by little until it just becomes normal and you don't realize that it didn't exist before.

So we're going to see a lot of weather anomalies and we're going to see other things happen in addition to and what these gamma rays are also affecting the Sun and it's causing massive Coronal Mass Ejections to occur that bombard the Earth and that is why we are seeing northern lights the aurora even in the summertime.

I live in Michigan which is fairly north and we used to only see the aurora maybe between October and march and now we're starting to see them in June September I even remember this past summer there were there was an aurora so that's very unusual and what people also don't know, but which the government also confirmed to me is that the Earth is hollow there are planets that are rock and others that are hollow the Earth is a hollow planet and so is Mars and that is because as they were formed as a molten material that was ejected from the Sun and it spins in space and it starts to cool off the outside of the molten material starts to cool and harden, but the inside is still spinning around

So as it spins around it creates a hardened wall or let's say another mantle inside the Earth and between the inner mantle and the outer mantle is this magma that's trapped between the hardened inner and outer layers and as these layers move against each other through the spin they fracture and they cause or create tectonic plates and that's why we have our earthquakes because the Earth is spinning these plates are still moving and as they move they fracture and so inside at the very middle of the Earth what some people call the inner Sun.

It's not really an inner Sun it's the left over molten material from the formation of the planet and as this has occurs there was a push for the north and south poles there's an opening where the remnants of this of this pressure pushed out and so there is a 1,300 mile opening at the North Pole and there's a 950 mile opening at the South Pole and that's where Admiral Byrd explored during right after world were two admiral bird was sent to the south pole to explore the opening there and guess what he found in there was a German Reich Hitler had sent naval ships and material from 1938 onward and to create in the South Pole in Antarctica what he called the paradise for the Führer and they created New Berlin, New Frankfurt, New Munich and so on in this area and admiral bird went in there and he was told to leave and that's when the governments of the United States and I believe Canada also helped them sent ships into 46 into 47 and project high jump to Antarctica and so you would think why would they sent naval vessels war vessels to Antarctica after the war.

That's because they knew the Germans were there and you should know that the armada that was sent was pretty much destroyed by the Germans because they had very high level equipment that they received from the beings in the Aldebaran star system who were the ones who helped create the Teutonic race which became Germany and it's a very long story which I won't go into too much detail here, but I will tell you that there is a Fourth Reich and in fact in my debriefings especially in the beginning they said to me Stewart what would people think and do when they find out that there's a Fourth Reich and that there is activity in Antarctica so this also is going to be released slowly, slowly over the course of time to help people understand what's going on down there and some of you who are old enough to remember or who know history back in 1952, July of 1952, there was an overflight of Washington DC by these luminous objects that would fly over the Capitol building and the and the White House.

And nobody could stop them and they appeared on radar and that was a message from the Fourth Reich to the American government that guess who really won the war we can fly over your Capitol and you can't stop us and I will tell you again I won't give details, but there are bases on the Moon, there are bases on Mars they've been there for decades and decades and the Moon is an artificial object it is not a natural object the Moon does not spin.

It's the only object in space that we know of that doesn't spin because it's a vehicle it was driven into our solar system by the reptilians long time ago and that's why it's only parked you can only see one side of the Moon at any time like a like a vehicle turning around the Earth and it was built specifically so that when it is between the Earth and the Sun the vision of the Moon completely covers the Sun and that's why we have the lunar eclipses and so on and that again is a whole nother story I suggest those of you who were interested that you want to maybe read some of our books now I'm skipping around a lot of things because I want to make sure I cover as much as possible for 2026.

Especially I'm going to tell you that one of the assignments I have been given along with a couple of other people is to get to buyers and sellers of gold. Gold now is the biggest attraction of governments on the Earth everybody wants gold the reason is as follows in 2026 there will be a new digital currency which right now they're calling it crypto, but it's not going to be crypto it's going to be a digital currency which will be backed by gold now the money you have now the paper money quite frankly is worthless it's backed by zero because when they opened up Fort Knox a few months ago I believe it was earlier this year I was told guess what there was no gold in there was dust there is absolutely no gold in Fort Knox and your money is worthless American money and so is most of the other money and so what we're going to do is procure gold to back a new digital currency and you will be given the choice sometime in 2026 to convert your currency your paper money to digital you'll have a choice at first before it becomes mandatory and here's why it's a good idea to do it.

Because when you let's say have a hundred dollars and you convert it to the digital and they'll tell you okay your hundred paper dollar paper money is now worth 10 digital and you'll think huh I lost 90 percent of my money not true because your hundred dollars was worth nothing and your ten dollars in or 10 digital dollars is has gold backing as the cost or the price of gold increases and I'm going to tell you by this time next year it'll be over $8,000 per Troy ounce as your as that increases your ten dollars will also increase so by doing nothing by simply keeping your digital money in the bank you're going to become wealthy as the cost of gold increases and it will and I'm going to tell you something else. There's more gold on this Earth than they will have you believe.

They tell you that the amount of gold is limited because of the way the Earth was created, but in fact there's a lot of gold out there and I know that because I'm working on deals right now and I will also tell you that many of the Russian oligarchs who left Russia before the Ukraine war took their money out and put it in EU banks, Middle Eastern banks, Asian banks and so on, but president Putin did not let them out unless they gave him a percent so, for example, if you had 10 million equivalent rubles dollars and you wanted to take that out. Putin said okay give me 10 percent give me a million and you can't take the nine million now they're finding out that the oligarchs lied to him so they may have taken hundreds of billions and I'm being conservative I know it's more than that.

And he didn't know about it so he's pretty angry that he did not get his 10 percent of that larger amount and that is why he's going after them. And the EU knows this as well and that is why they're going after Russian money in EU banks and you see this on the news and so we are working diligently to make a compromise between everybody so that US is the patron of money the EU will get a percent the Russians will get.

So to keep everybody let's say in a non-threatening condition and as it's not funny, but it's called sudden Russian death syndrome where you fall out of a window accidentally and that's been happening a lot and you can see that it's a very interesting situation going on right now.

Another thing that we're looking at is the rare Earth minerals. So for the rare Earth minerals China now has taken the monopoly on them and even taken the monopoly on the rare Earth minerals from Asia and Africa. So the United States is also looking to get rare Earth minerals reason is we know that the petroleum or the gasoline industry or the oil industry is not going to last forever, but as technology increases they want to go to hydrogen.

If you have an electric vehicle might as well put it in the garbage because they're going to disappear in the next year or two because the electrical grids, for example, the windmills and the electric vehicles, they create more environmental damage than what we have now and you can look that up yourself. So they're going to convert over to hydrogen power which is basically unlimited.

If you have water you have hydrogen power and it releases oxygen on top of that so it's good for the Earth and so they need rare Earth minerals to generate the creation of hydrogen power. You're also seeing the creation of these data centers and there's a lot of disinformation about the data centers, but they will be needed and necessary in order to create the AI quantum situation that will be coming.

Now AI quantum again is a very, very misunderstood situation. The United States seeks to be number one with AI quantum, the reason being, whoever is in control of AI quantum basically will control the world. You do not want China to be in control and, of course, nobody was going to trust Russia to be in control of it either, so it is a better condition that the United States is in control of AI quantum. AI is not as developed as you think. It's going to be another two three years before it becomes at a level that can be more of what they're promoting and for quantum also we do not have enough quantum scientists to write the software that is necessary.

I'm going to tell you we need to understand in a nutshell what AI quantum is. By the way they're going to change the term of quantum to super intelligence. You're going to start seeing that term more than quantum, again a creeping changing term into something else so that is understandable. AI is the information and the solution to a problem quantum is the speed that that solution comes.

So that's why they have to go together. We also know from dealing with certain extraterrestrial beings which we do and by the way these beings are not love light and peace as some people promote.

There's more war in space than there has been on the Earth and just because a civilization has high technology doesn't make them spiritual.

Look at our planet. Look at the high technology in some countries and they're warlike and that is true of what's going on right now. Having high technology just means you have better weapons and I'm going to get to that in a moment, but spirituality needs to meet or exceed technology when you have a society where the technology exceeds spirituality that's a doomed culture that culture will be destroyed and we know that there have been civilizations in the galaxy and beyond that have been destroyed by their technology because AI took over and decided that the biological beings were inefficient and unnecessary and they were destroyed.

We don't want that to happen here and so I suggested to this director that speaks to me and to others to infuse embed in the AI quantum software the bible code those of you who know about the bible code and there's books out there on this especially by Mr. Drosden who unfortunately passed away three years ago the bible code is the five books of Moses in the Hebrew language without spaces between the words which can be fed directly into the computer the Hebrew language is the only one where the letters are also numbers.

So it can be fed directly into a computer system and if we put the bible code into AI quantum software it will by default protect humanity because basically the bible code is the mind of god who wants to sustain his creation his universes and their infinite universes and so by embedding this bible code we can pretty much understand that AI will not destroy humanity and we're seeing things happening on the Earth where countries like China and the others are creating artificial intelligence robots without the use of this bible code and we have even seen them attack their creators almost like a Frankenstein.

So it's a very important subject that we need to deal with I also want to talk about what's going on in space because, of course, the big news is on December 19, 31 Atlas the so-called comet will be in the closest proximity to the Earth, but in order to explain this I need to go back about 95 years in that 1930 those astronomers discovered or actually saw for the first time the planet Pluto it just suddenly appeared in the outer reaches of our solar system.

You have to understand that our solar system is surrounded by a region that is called the Kuiper belt and beyond that is the Oort cloud and what most people on the Earth don't know is that in the Oort cloud is the second Sun it's the companion Sun to our Sun and what you also need to know is that most solar systems in the universe are binary it's actually rare to find a solar system with just one star and so our solar system has two. You can't see it because it's in the Oort cloud and in the late 1990s I think it was 98 or 99 when they when they discovered this they started to call it the companion.

So I think that has been mostly erased from the internet, but it was called the companion and it was another Sun it's smaller than our star, but it revolves around ours in the Oort belt and it also helps the planets that are in the Kuiper belt.

Originally we were told, those of you who grew up and went to school, that there were nine planets in our solar system and then a couple of years ago they said, no Pluto is not a planet. It's a Kuiper belt object and then they started to see a lot of other Kuiper belt objects appear almost daily on the news they would say this object appeared and that object appeared and it became so suspicious they stopped reporting on it and they said Pluto is just not a planet. It's a Kuiper belt object.

Well I'm going to tell you there are 13 planets in our solar system that extend all the way into the Oort belt it's not just the nine that we originally knew about, but you can't see the other four because of their location near the companion Sun and so Pluto actually is not a natural object. It was a vehicle like the Moon that was driven into our solar system as an observatory of our civilization.

Quite frankly the Earth is considered to be like the Iran of our galaxy. Humans do not have a very good reputation, unfortunately, and again at the risk of being contrary to other people there is no love light and peace on this world yet nor is there out there because our solar system is surrounded in the Kuiper belt by these vehicles who basically are quarantining our world because they consider the Earth to be a very dangerous place and we need to be controlled and monitored.

Now I'm going to tell you there are five types of beings that the government has identified or classified into categories. One is the humanoids and when I say humanoids that just means they have two arms, two legs and a head and they walk upright. So they don't necessarily look like humans, but they are mammalian and they have many different manifestations, let's say tall blondes and so on. Then there is the Reptilians. The reptilians were actually the second group that colonized this planet and that's a whole nother story that would take me a while to describe to you. It's in my Blue blood, True blood book and my true world history book both. Those of you who are interested can read those. Then there is the insectoids. Now the insectoids are let's say they despise humanity they want to destroy annihilate the Earth. The next group is the animal type beings these look like they could look like lion beings. They could look like bears. There are those who are aquatic, but that's another category and finally there are the etheric beings.

These etheric beings are not necessarily from our physical universe. Some of them come from an alternate or parallel universe and by the way, like I said, there are infinite universes or parallel universes depending how you want to look at it and they are the ones who let's say have the most knowledge of what's going on because they're not limited by physical reality.

So that's what's going on. There's a lot of discussion in the Kuiper belt about what to do with humanity. Some again want to annihilate, some want to quarantine, some want to incorporate the civilization into their groups, and others think we should just be left alone, because we're not smart enough to develop and it reminds me of the old Chinese saying when you give a man a fish you feed him for a day when you teach him how to fish you feed him for life.

So the beings that want to impose their knowledge on humans, they're not helping because they're not teaching people how to upgrade themselves. They're just pacifying them at the moment. And that's the issue that I have with those who say they're coming to upgrade our DNA, upgrade our soul. Listen you're already as perfect as you can be. Your DNA has God mind in it already. It's a question of being aware.

So it's just a question of knowledge and applying that knowledge I can tell you from my 13 years at the Montauk project, the mind control and programming that was created and developed through the use of satellites and scalar transmissions, we create fracturing of the mind and we knew that the mind and we knew this also from the German experiments in the concentration camps.

When you traumatize and fracture a person's mind it creates an image in the mind of a cube of 13 by 13 by 13 which means two thousand 197 compartments that could be programmed into sub personalities or constructs and so on and as these can be turned on by satellites. You can have a different personality. You can think you're speaking with angels or demons or what have you when in fact it's a satellite transmission.

So I know that doesn't agree with a lot of people to say this, but I I'm not here to convince you or argue I just tell you what I know. You can accept it or not that's your choice, but I just have to tell you what I know and so we have a lot of things going on out there.

This 3I Atlas object is a vehicle. We don't know how many types of beings are on it, but they're letting us know that there's living beings. That's why it's sending out a pulse that sounds like a heartbeat that's a symbol of "Hey we're alive." and they're also sending out methanol and other chemical signatures of life.

So that whoever sees these signatures knows that they are living beings on board. We don't know what they'll do when they come close to the Earth on December 19. We do know they have been sending let's say threatening messages to certain governments which is why Elon musk and his Starlink have been jamming the signals to amateur astronomers and so on, on the Earth, so that they don't get the messages, that are only for channels for the governments.

And that's why President Trump is doing everything he can to stop wars all over the Earth because he knows everybody needs to unite against what's coming and that's why we need that Golden Dome and we need the superstates, so everybody's under one umbrella. It's not an nefarious thing. It's something to help the people of each continent. We are trying desperately to create a plasma shield around the ionosphere to block the gamma ray bombardment because it's affecting the geology of the Earth and plants, trees and crops are not producing as they as they had been. There's also something called muons

These are subatomic particles that are natural in the in the environment, but we have been noticing a huge increase of muons bombarding the Earth. Muons can penetrate granite scientists create them to look at what's under the pyramid, what's underneath the rock shield and so on, but these muons are unnatural that are bombarding the Earth.

They penetrate your DNA and they can change your DNA and they can change your personality and that's why people we are seeing all of these violent things happening, shootings and attacks and mobs and things going on more than ever before because people's people are being affected physically and mentally and emotionally and it's a very big problem.

So we need to definitely work together and that's what I just did this past weekend in Florida. I went to Florida, got away from the snow and cold here in Michigan and I belong to a medical order. I'm a medical doctor. My specialty is indigenous medicine. I'm also a licensed naturopath in the state of Idaho and I am also a doctor of alternative medicine and so my organization belongs to the Sacred Medical Order Church of Hope (SMOCH). We created this past weekend we brought Jews, Christians and Muslims under one umbrella for an investiture to unite all the Abrahamic faiths the father Abraham

So I tell you or the idea of Abrahamic faiths of Judaism Christianity Islam I'm going to tell you something else that maybe you didn't know. It's in my books. After Sarah died, Abraham's wife Sarah, Abraham married an Ethiopian woman named Kettera with her he had six sons now he was like a hundred and thirty seven years old so he knew how to take care of himself.

So he had six sons with Kettera and when these sons grew up to a certain age Abraham sent them out into Asia and to Africa where they became known as the children of the east and they created the other religions or they influenced the other religions in Asia like Hinduism Buddhism Shintoism and so on what is the lead the head god of Hinduism Brahman put an a on Abraham you cannot make this up and Buddhism is a Hebrew word for bhiyahuda, bhuta means from juda and Shinto is the Hebrew letters shin and tough it's Hebrew letters it means good tooth meaning what you say is good the Hebrew word for god yah is the manthir in Chinese word yah same word.

So that's why India and China and Japan are very actually close to Israel because they know they have the same father.

So when I talk about Abrahamic religions it's not just the three Christian Christianity Judaism Islam it's also Hinduism Buddhism Shintoism and so on and even in Nepal the name Nepal is the Hebrew word for high mountain. King Solomon had the largest navy on the Earth and that three thousand years ago before he as he was building the temple in Jerusalem and the Phoenicians were aligned with him.

The Phoenician language is actually paleo-hebrew they work they worked together. He went all over the world and when he needed iron to help build the infrastructure of the temple he sent his navy out to find iron and they found it in a continent far away. The Hebrew word for iron is barzel. That's where we get the name barbell came from, barbell because that's where the iron came from I could tell you stories till next week and beyond, but I'm going to tell you that even in Nigeria when they were digging a well for water for a village a few couple of decades ago they struck something 50 feet under the ground when they dug it up. It was a star David and to this day the Ebo tribe in Nigeria practiced Judaism.

I'm working with the government of Ghana and I said to them Ghana is Hebrew. Ghana, it means the garden of god. They said "Yes, we know, we are trained by Israelis." You cannot make this up people. I'm telling you that there's more behind the scenes than you know.

There are over two billion people on this planet with Hebrew genetics and they don't know it. How do you explain South Pacific islanders praying in Hebrew and worshiping Jewish holidays, the Ethiopian Falasha Jews also same from King Solomon and Queen of Sheba.

There's a lot that we don't know or that people are not taught in school, but it's in my books. I have a series called Dark to Light, a series of three books, e.g. Volume I: Ancient Codes of Torah, Kabbalah & Zohar

So far I'm hoping to make it five, but right now we are in the third book and all of what I'm telling you is it in there with all the codes from the bible and so on and so we are working with my medical order which is under actually the Caldean Catholic church of the east, not connected to the Vatican. We are trying to create huge faith globalized, so that people worship together as brothers and sisters under one umbrella and I've been working with the Sheikh of Abu Dhabi.

He is a wonderful person he has the center in Abu Dhabi of a synagogue church and it's an a mosque and it's all in one location and he told me he will help me to create what the Russians asked me to do the committee for global peace and they will bring in 150 nations under this committee for global peace it will replace the evil United Nations that we have now and we'll replace it with an organization that will stop war that will create humanity as one people under God.

And that's the next thing you're going to see in 2026 and I hardly touched on what I was going to say, but in 2026 President Trump will state that the United States is a Christian country and that doesn't mean if you're not Christian you have to leave it just means that through laws and the regulations and the belief systems will be aligned towards the Christian faith, but towards the original Christian faith which has been, of course, as you know since the council of Nicaea in 325 AD Christianity was completely changed to something else for control purposes.

I have in my books about the Vatican, why is it called the Vatican because that's where the Etruscans buried their soldiers and the soldiers were buried in this cemetery dedicated to the Goddess of Vatica an astral goddess that took the souls of the dead warriors and that's what the Vatican is built over a cemetery of dead warriors and that's why it's called Vatican and I used to have a client that was a spokesperson for the Vatican and this person told me if you knew what went on in the Vatican you would not be catholic anymore. So I will just summarize here for the purpose of for people that what we're seeing now and I'll go over this another time the President Trump his team the people who came before are reincarnations of them, Queen Jezebel and King Ahab. King Ahab and Jezebel [Baal] created transgenderism, child sacrifice, horrible things that the deep state wanted to impose on and didn't impose on the United States now, and Trump is his reincarnation who destroyed that and brought the country back to its worship of God and stabilize it and that's what President Trump is attempting to do to do now.

He has to do it in a way that is as fast as possible because we don't have a lot of time left before certain things occur and then we will all have to rectify what we're doing we are in end times absolutely, but we're coming to the end of end times and so that's why we need to purge out all our negative mind patterns all our traumatized emotions help ourselves physically mentally emotionally so that we can be prepared for what is coming into the world.

You may not be thrilled with it in the beginning, but as we go through and we impose greater and more wonderful things that people can accept after we purge the diseases out we will have a society that is what god intended on this planet.

I thank you all. I thank Dr. Salla and I thank all the people on his staff for giving me the opportunity to speak to you today I look forward to your questions later and I will definitely invite you to my website expansions.com my wife and I also have a ministry swivel ministries which is a non-profit church any donation is tax deductible.

We do humanitarian aid across the planet we help people with food, jobs, homes, everything that they need. That's what Swerdlow ministries is doing, medical supplies and medical tourism to help people to improve themselves and gain greater health. So again I thank you very much for your attention I know maybe I shocked a few people, but that's how I speak. so thank you for your attention and I appreciate Dr. Salla and his staff thank you so much
